find the year of this reference generation of Natural Language (Natural Language Processing - Ela Kumar - Google Books n.d.).

Vague sentence "In NLP as the natural language is processed which is stored in the form of documents or tables, the main words are extracted and used to get the opinion of the text. These words are converted to vectorized forms using different vectorization methods as mathematical calculations can be done on numerical data."

ciation need and vague sentence, please correct the structure of the sentence "Mix-Code languages consist of two or more language varieties while using"

too much repeation of the word "type. "

I think this sentence is not making sense "The flow of this project includes cleaning data like removing special characters, smiley symbols, etc."
The complete flow can be explained later on with complete seperate paragraph.

Add additional sentence after this line "The work references are added in the References section." to connect the above paragraph with respestive RQ.

Hypothsis is missing before the RQ.

Change the language of RQ, "getting good result" change it.
